

Excerpts from Reflections

The Five Pillars of Islam @ Harmony Centre

"I learnt a lot about Islam and its practices."

- Ester Chen, St Andrew's Cathedral

"It helps others to understand and empathise with each others' beliefs, thus contributing to the religious harmony in Singapore or the world in general."

- Abdul Rahman, Member of Eunos IRCC

"This programme is very useful to our friends of different race and religion, so that they gain more knowledge about Islam and the community"

- Sakinah Bte Jamin, Member of Boon Lay IRCC

"It gave me a better understanding of this religion. As a Hindu, this programme has cleared my doubts on Islam. I appreciate this programme as it inculcates the sense of social cohesion among us youths"

- Haripriya, Member of Eunos IRCC

Exploring Karma @ Singapore Jain Religious Society

"This is a practical and realistic religion allowing widows to practice the religion according to their own abilities."

- Tan Beng Chong, Vice-Chairman of Braddell Heights IRCC

"Very informative in providing non-Jain a glimpse into the culture and beliefs of the religion"

- Sam Yuen, Member of Bishan-Toa Payoh North IRCC

"Enabled better understanding and insight of Jainism and its practices."

- Nai Soo Tong, Member of Bukit Batok East IRCC

"Very informative, enabled me to respect their practices."

- N Kumari Devi, PBM, Member of Nee Soon East IRCC

The Way of The Khalsa @ Central Sikh Temple

"I have better understanding and appreciation of the religion and people now."

- Jeffrey Po, Member of Kebun Bahru IRCC

"Teaches the beliefs of Sikhism and also shows the inter-relationship between Hindus and Muslims."

- Yogeindran, Member of Bishan East IRCC

Reflections @ ISD Heritage Centre

"It's a privilege to visit the centre and understand the role of the people working there and it's also very educational"

- Charlie Guan, Member of Nee Soon East IRCC

"Gives the public awareness of the history of Singapore in the areas, especially those who were not born in that era. Also awareness of how to react and prevent mishap of similar incidents."

- Monica Lee, St Andrew's Cathedral

"Educational, alive and real issues"

- Chan Ban Choon, Punggol South IRCC
