A picture of harmony in sand

Sand-painter Erika Chen, 26, mesmerised the crowd at the Arts House last night with her interpretation of racial harmony. Her performance was part of the Orange Ribbon Celebrations (ORC) 2010 held at the River Promenade. The ORC is a month-long movement where more than 200,000 people have pledged to support racial harmony. The ORC 2010 is organised by OnePeople.sg, which promotes harmony among Singaporeans, new citizens and expatriates. ST PHOTO: AIDAH RAUF
